A home with soul is not found... it is felt.

In the prestigious and highly sought-after area of Cotobro, in the beautiful coastal town of Almuñécar on the Costa Tropical, this exceptional villa offers a rare combination of elegance, privacy and lifestyle. Set in a quiet residential street, just a short walk from the sea, it is a place where sophistication meets the relaxed charm of southern Spain.

The property is distributed across multiple levels, carefully designed to embrace its elevated position and capture uninterrupted views over the Mediterranean. A private lift connects from the garage level all the way up to the main living areas, allowing you to move effortlessly through...(Ask for
