Villa in La Nucia

€1,575,000

4	4	351m²	800m²	N/A

This is a home with a basement, ground floor and first floor that stands out for its contemporary appearance and attention to detail.
The façade of the house is made up of several cubes of different sizes and heights, which are interspersed creating an irregular geometry. These cubes are carefully arranged to achieve a modern and attractive aesthetic, while maintaining a sense of subtlety. This volumetric arrangement generates a play of light and shadows on the façade which adds depth and dynamism to this house.
The choice of large windows and openings strategically located on the façade allows natural light to enter the interior and creates a visual connection between the interior...(Ask for More Details!)
