Set on the second floor right next door to the ever-handy Ramada Resort by Wyndham Puerto de Mazarrón, this two-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment is all about easy coastal living with a splash of personality in the heart of Puerto de Mazarrón.

Before you even step inside, the vibe kicks in-access is via a walkway with gorgeous open views across the hillsides of the port, the kind that make you pause for a second (or a photo... or three). Inside, things only get better. The lounge is bright, breezy, and perfectly positioned to soak up those full-on coastal views, with the town stretching out below and the Mediterranean sparkling in the distance.
