Unique and spacious duplex near Playa de los Locos - 145 m², private rooftop terrace.

This is a rare opportunity in Torrevieja. In a charming residential complex built in classic Spanish style in 1988, you will find this very special duplex property of 145 m², located just 100 meters from Playa de los Locos beach, with the possibility to purchase a private garage space in the under built. This home stands out from most properties in the area. It was originally created by the developer of the complex, who wanted a larger private residence. For this reason, two apartments were combined into one spacious home, making this one of the largest properties...(Ask for More Details!)
