THE WORLD AT YOUR FEET: AN UNASSAILABLE 360-DEGREE PANORAMA

There are locations that impress, and there are locations that take your breath away. This magisterial estate of over 22,000 m² near Guaro unmistakably belongs to the latter category. Thanks to its unique, elevated position, this modern villa serves as an architectural viewpoint offering a complete, unobstructed 360-degree view of the rolling Valle del Guadalhorce and the imposing contours of the Sierra de las Nieves.

The property was built in 2009 with an obsession for perfection. With a total built area of nearly 300 m², the villa offers a rare combination of robust Northern European build quality and refined
