In the residential area of the Marina del Este marina, within a gated community with restricted access, communal pool, and shared spaces, stands this detached villa built on a plot of over 400 m², featuring a small private pool.

The property has nearly 300 m² of living space, surrounded by more than 250 m² of terraces and patios.

This unique home is distributed across three spacious floors.

The main floor provides direct access to the large living room with three large windows, offering multiple exits to the terraces and patios surrounding the house, as well as to the main terrace, which
