If you are looking for a property that combines Mediterranean character with plenty of space for family and guests, this villa in Moraira is an excellent option. The home, which boasts a privileged location and fantastic sea views, has been partially renovated, achieving a perfect balance between modern comfort and the essence of homes on the Costa Blanca.

The interior space stands out for its scale and brightness. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a spacious living-dining room that becomes the natural gathering place of the house. Seamlessly connected, the kitchen is large, a feature that is hard to find nowadays and will delight those who enjoy cooking and need space...(Ask for More Details!)
