Discover this stunning light-filled detached villa, located in one of the most sought-after areas of the Costa del Sol, where white tones, spaciousness and natural light take center stage throughout the home.

The property offers 550 m² of built area on an 800 m² plot, distributed over two comfortable floors. It features five generous bedrooms and four fully equipped bathrooms, making it ideal for families or for those who value space and comfort.

The interior stands out for its bright, open-plan rooms, with large windows that flood the house with natural light, enhancing the white finishes and creating a fresh, elegant and welcoming atmosphere.
