Located within the award-winning and prestigious gated community of Aldea Blanca, this stunning new renovated 3-bedroom residence offers a rare blend of timeless Mediterranean charm and flawless Scandinavian engineering. Rebuilt from the inside out with a relentless focus on technical perfection, this property represents a unique opportunity to acquire a turnkey luxury home where you can truly leave the car behind.

Aldea Blanca (The White Village) is not merely a residential development; it is a celebrated piece of Marbella's history. Designed by the legendary architect Melvin Villarreal-the mastermind behind the iconic Puente Romano and Marbella Club-it was built to resemble a traditional Andalusian village.
