Spacious apartment with south facing view, pool and full facilities Here we offer a generous and well-planned apartment high up in the house, where light, space and a sought-after location interact in a natural way. With its southern orientation, the home receives fantastic light and lovely hours of sunshine for most of the day.

The apartment has approximately 150 square meters of built area and a living area of approximately 122 square meters, divided into four bedrooms and two bathrooms. The floor plan is well thought out and provides plenty of space for both family, guests and a home office, while the home offers a pleasant and lightly furnished feel.
