This pub is located in the very popular and well-known old town of Altea. Its unbeatable location, in the church square, makes it highly frequented by visitors to the area.

In front of the pub there is a terrace with space for around 30 people to sit and relax. Each floor has its own style and its own bar. The ground floor is more spacious, while the second floor features wooden walls; it also includes the bathrooms and access to the solarium. From the solarium, you can enjoy stunning views of the sea, the mountains, and the church itself.

The pub has a very personalized decoration, with a maritime and travel theme...(Ask for More Details!)
