Some properties stand out for their location, while others stand out for the opportunities they offer. This one combines both qualities. Located less than a five-minute walk from the emblematic Calle La Bola, in the heart of Ronda, this townhouse is an excellent choice both for those looking for a charming home and for those seeking a profitable investment from day one, thanks to its valid tourist rental licence. With 125 m² of built area, the layout has been designed to offer comfort and versatility. It features three bedrooms, all with independent locks, a particularly interesting feature for those looking to generate income through room rentals. In addition, one of the...(Ask for More Details!)
