One of the most emblematic restaurants in the area is now for sale - a well-established business, fully operational and highly regarded throughout the region.

Located just minutes from El Torcal and only 14 km from Caminito del Rey, the property enjoys a strategic location in a high-tourism area, making it an exceptional opportunity to continue the hospitality activity or further develop rural and event-based tourism projects.

The property offers extensive facilities and is the largest-capacity restaurant in the area, making it a benchmark venue for weddings, communions, baptisms, and all types of celebrations. The professional kitchen is fully equipped and prepared for high-volume service, featuring double cold
