Discover a semi-detached home with two levels, designed for those seeking spaciousness, light, and style in a privileged location by the sea. Fully customizable, it includes a private pool, designed to enjoy the Mediterranean climate all year round. Its design has been completely renovated following a contemporary architectural style, where straight lines, open spaces, and the entrance of natural light dominate for much of the day. The large windows and the new arrangement of doors and windows on the ground floor create open and bright rooms, while on the upper floor, usable space has been gained thanks to an intelligent reorganization of the space, integrating large windows that bring even more...(Ask for More Details!)
