Three-Unit Rental Investment Opportunity - El Faro, Mijas Costa

An excellent rental investment opportunity in the sought-after El Faro area of Mijas Costa, just a 5-minute walk from the beach.

This detached villa has already been divided into three independent properties, creating multiple rental income streams from a single asset. With two units currently tenanted, one available for immediate rental and further value-add potential through renovation, the property offers an attractive combination of existing income and scope to increase future rental returns.
