If you dream of living surrounded by nature without sacrificing the convenience of being close to town, this magnificent 20,241 m² rustic land offers everything you need.

Located just 10 minutes' far from Coín by car, the property enjoys easy access via a well-maintained road that is fully accessible throughout the year.

The estate is reached via a private access road shared with only three neighbouring properties, ensuring a peaceful, secure and highly private setting.

The partially fenced plot is home to a wide variety of well-maintained fruit trees in full production, including mulberry, orange and plum trees, grapevines and many other species.
