Modern family villa with private pool, four en-suite bedrooms and park views

Welcome to this modern and luxurious villa where generous spaces, modern architecture and high comfort are combined with an attractive location close to both the sea, services and central Torrevieja.

Here we offer a home beyond the ordinary with four spacious bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms, large social areas, an extra living room and an impressive living room with approximately six meters in ceiling height. The home is in new condition and throughout made with quality materials and great attention to detail.
