Situated just one line back from the beach, this bright and beautifully located apartment offers an excellent opportunity in the heart of the town, within a residential building of just six apartments. Positioned on the first floor and benefiting from a lift, the property is surrounded by everything you could need, with the beach, shops, restaurants, cafés and local amenities all within easy walking distance.

The apartment offers a bright and welcoming living room with direct access to a charming balcony, which is also accessible from both of the large double bedrooms. The open-plan kitchen is practical, with the added benefit of a small, separate laundry room. There are two generously...(Ask for More
