Can you imagine living right on the beachfront, waking up every morning to sea views, and stepping out of the building directly onto the beach?
The apartment is located on the 8th floor. It features a spacious and bright living room with spectacular open sea views that fill the interior with natural light and create the feeling of having the sea inside the apartment.
The property has a separate kitchen, fully furnished and equipped with appliances. It also includes a practical laundry area, ideal for keeping everything organised.
One of the most pleasant spaces in the property is its spacious terrace, with enough room for a
