Welcome to this bright and inviting apartment in the heart of La Campana, Marbella, offering a convenient location, generous outdoor space and everything you need for comfortable everyday living on the Costa del Sol.

The apartment features a spacious and light-filled living area with an open-plan kitchen, creating a practical and social layout. Large sliding doors connect the living room directly with the generous west-facing terrace, where you can enjoy the afternoon and evening sun as well as open views towards the surrounding area and mountains. The terrace offers plenty of space for both outdoor dining and a lounge area, making it a natural extension of the living space.
