Authentic Andalusian Townhouse in Mijas Pueblo, South-Facing with Sea and Mountain Views

Set within a quiet, plant-filled cobbled lane in the heart of Mijas Pueblo, this characterful townhouse blends traditional charm with relaxed village living, moments from the landmark Fiesta restaurant and walking distance to the plazas, shops and viewpoints of the village.

The bright, split-level living room is full of authentic detail: exposed dark wood beams, a traditional brick fireplace, whitewashed walls with arched display niches, and cool marble floors. French doors open the space to a private terrace, and air conditioning keeps it comfortable year round.

A separate galley kitchen features classic white cabinetry, dark granite worktops and a compact
