Nestled within the sought-after urbanization of Galera Park in Costa Galera, this exceptional townhouse presents a rare opportunity as an ideal family home, a serene holiday retreat, or a lucrative investment property, thanks to the urbanization's allowance for short-term rentals.

As you walk into the entrance lobby, the guest toilet is conveniently situated on the first door to the right. Beyond lies a spacious kitchen featuring a large arched opening that looks out towards the open-plan lounge and dining room, perfectly doubling as a functional kitchen counter. The expansive lounge and dining area is flooded with natural light, featuring two large glass sliding doors that open directly onto a generous covered...(Ask for More Details!)
