Large Building Plot with Irrigation Water Near Macisvenda This spacious 48,977 m² building plot is located approximately 2 km from Macisvenda, offering an excellent opportunity to create a countryside home or larger rural project in a peaceful setting. The land benefits from irrigation water and enjoys beautiful open views across the surrounding countryside and mountains. Its generous size also offers the possibility of segregating the land into separate plots, subject to the relevant planning permissions and local regulations, providing additional flexibility for future development or investment. With plenty of space and a quiet rural location close to the village, this property is ideal for buyers looking for privacy, agricultural land, or a building... (Ask for More Details!)
