HISTORIC TOWN PALACE WITH PRIVATE CAVE RETREAT & LOUNGE POOL IN THE HEART OF COÍN

Step into a sheltered sanctuary of peace and elegance, hidden behind the centuries-old walls of a beautifully renovated town palace. In the vibrant heart of Coín, rich history meets the highest Northern European building standards. Featuring high ceilings, characteristic Andalusian arches that flood the interior with natural light, and foundations dating back hundreds of years, this home feels like a best-kept secret. As soon as the front door closes, the thick ancient walls leave the energy of town life outside, inviting you into a wonderfully relaxed and sheltered atmosphere.
