Office located in a building for professional use, in a very central location of Marbella, surrounded by shops, banks, restaurants and all kinds of services.

It is currently used as a single large area office, with reception, several offices, meeting rooms and different work areas. Its configuration also allows to return to the original distribution of four completely independent offices, each with its own entrance.

It is a fully exterior office, with numerous windows and good natural light entry during the day. The current distribution supports different configurations, both for one company and for several independent workspaces.
