A Charming Finca for Sale in Almogía, Málaga - Space, Privacy and Beautiful Views
Some places just feel right from the moment you arrive. This is one of them.
From the main road, you enter through an electric gate into a private, gated area with just seven properties scattered across the hillside. A short 300-metre drive from the remote-controlled gate brings you to the property.
You park your car under the carport and walk through two large, handmade Andalusian doors into the enclosed courtyard. And that is when you immediately feel it.
Space. Tranquillity. Peace.
