This distinctive villa is located in Churriana, approximately 13 km from Málaga city centre, with excellent access to Málaga-Costa del Sol International Airport and just a short drive from the beaches of Los Álamos and Torremolinos.

The property stands out for its Mediterranean architecture with Andalusian and Moorish influences. Elegant arches, an ornamental fountain and a striking combination of earthy tones and deep red accents give the villa a unique character and a strong sense of identity.

The quality of the materials is another of its defining features. The interiors are finished with Macael marble flooring, bringing light and elegance to the living spaces, while the bathrooms feature
