This charming Mediterranean-style townhouse, located next to the prestigious Ifach golf course in the exclusive San Jaime area, has been completely renovated by its owner. The result is a modern home, ready to move in without any work or worries, in one of the most sought-after environments on the Costa Blanca.

With 73 m<sup>2</sup> of constructed space, the property offers 2 bedrooms and 1 full bathroom, both updated, a bright living area, and a renovated kitchen that is practical and functional. The current finishes and well-planned layout create a cozy and modern space without losing the Mediterranean character that makes it so special.
