Located in La Capellanía, in the hills of Benalmádena, Villa Colina Vista is a six-bedroom villa that has just completed a two-year renovation by a Swedish construction company. Originally built in 1992, the house has been brought up to Scandinavian standards of construction and finish, combining Nordic design with Italian materials. The setting is residential and private, with the coast, Puerto Marina, golf courses, international schools and Málaga Airport within a short drive, and both Málaga and Marbella easily reached along the coast.

Although the villa is set across two levels, it lives like a single-floor home. The main living spaces and bedrooms are arranged on one level, connected by a...(Ask for More Details!)
