Just 150 metres from the seafront, Playa del Puerto beach and the marina in Torre de la Horadada, this beautifully renovated first-floor apartment enjoys an exceptional location within the gated community of Residencial Horadada. With an excellent selection of bars, restaurants, cafés, shops, parks and a children's playground all within a short walk, this property perfectly combines modern living with one of the Costa Blanca's most desirable coastal settings.

Having been completely renovated from top to bottom, the apartment offers a high-quality finish throughout with virtually everything replaced. Renovation works include new flooring, plastered walls and ceilings, completely renewed electrical and plumbing installations, new PVC windows and doors
