Renovated Penthouse with Sea Views, Two Independent Living Units and Excellent Rental Potential in Fuengirola

An exclusive property located on the third line from the beach, between Fuengirola and Los Boliches, in a privileged location just a short walk from the sea.

The property consists of a single registered unit with one unique cadastral reference, distributed into two completely independent living spaces, each with its own private entrance. An ideal opportunity for those looking for a home with additional rental income or for investors seeking an attractive return on investment.
