High timber-beamed ceilings, wooden floors and a tower above the rooftops give this three-bedroom penthouse its character. In Málaga's historic centre, the home unfolds across three levels, with room to come together and places to retreat.

Along the street-facing side, the open kitchen with an island flows into the dining and living areas. Tall balcony doors bring in daylight, while the exposed roof structure gives the space a sense of height and scale. A separate hallway runs alongside, connecting the different parts of the home.

Close to the entrance, a glazed gallery wraps around an inner courtyard, with dining and seating areas. Its glass panels open to the patio, offering a sheltered...(Ask for More Details!)
