Cuevas de Becerro is a gorgeous village just a short drive from the historic town of Ronda and set in the most dramatic Andalusian scenery. The town is perfectly formed, so clean, has an amazing community spirit and benefits from beautiful parks, a stream and gorgeous public spaces. Only 55 minutes to malaga airport and the city. Ronda, with all the amenities of a city is only 20 minutes away.

"Casa del Carpintero" sits in what was the historic travelling theatre square. It has been lovingly reformed by the current owner to create a charming home.

The kitchen, living and dining room are open plan, with the benefit of a downstairs...(Ask for More
