A Home to Fall in Love With - Renovated Three-Bedroom Penthouse in Calahonda

Morning coffee with a glimpse of the sea, relaxed afternoons on your private solarium and cosy evenings beside a working fireplace. This beautifully maintained penthouse brings together the space, comfort and outdoor living that make a home on the Costa del Sol so special.

Set within a green, established community surrounded by La Siesta Golf, this three-bedroom, two-bathroom home has been thoughtfully renovated and lovingly cared for. From the moment you step inside, that care is evident: generous rooms, natural light throughout and a welcoming atmosphere that makes it easy to imagine settling straight in.
