Perhaps you're looking for somewhere to escape the dark winter months.

Or a home where everyday life in Spain becomes your own, with sea views we can guarantee will remain. This two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment in Higuerón Bay Residences could be just the place.

Two bedrooms offer space for both privacy and guests. The second bedroom can be reserved for loved ones or used as a home office if you spend longer periods in Spain. Two bathrooms make holidays together more comfortable and everyday life easier when several people are sharing the home.
