A unique 4 bedroomed townhouse having been completely refurbished in a trendy "Natura Style" and most unusually having the benefit of a private swimming pool. This corner property forms part of the quaint Aloha Pueblo complex and enjoys easy access from the road to the property.

Entering on the middle floor, a hall leads to the main entertainment area which has been divided with arched pillars into a formal drawing room with open working fire place and a formal dining room with French doors opening to a covered terrace. The kitchen is in line with the Natura style, with wooden fitted units, wooden top island and all modern appliances. In addition...(Ask for More Details!)
