First-floor corner apartment with lift access in the gated community of Residencial Angelina, ideally located just metres from the everyday amenities of San Miguel de Salinas. Within easy walking distance you will find Mas y Mas supermarket, pharmacy, cafés, bars, restaurants, banks, local shops and other essential services, with the centre of San Miguel also close by.

San Miguel de Salinas is an increasingly popular residential area which continues to see considerable new-build development, with many new properties now being marketed comfortably above the 200,000€ price bracket. This makes established resale communities such as Residencial Angelina an attractive alternative for buyers looking for a well-located home with excellent local
