Due to unforeseen circumstances the owners of The Codfather have reluctantly had to put their family business for sale in Mil Palmeras, it is located in the main walk way down to the beach and is in a fantastic location, the business has all the necessary licenses for the new owners to take over straight away and is fully kitted out, the business is ran as a takeaway fish and chip shop with lots of customers due to its fantastic location on the main road down to the beach. Rent is 500 a month plus the rention tax.
