Authentic Andalusian Finca with Sea & Countryside Views - Near Mijas Pueblo. Investment opportunity - an authentic Andalusian finca with great character, excellent views and exciting potential.

This charming and substantial Andalusian-style finca was built in 1967 and retains many of the characteristics of a traditional country house. The property has solid, substantial walls typical of traditional Andalusian construction, which not only give the house its wonderful sense of character and solidity, but also help to keep the interiors naturally cool during the hot summer months.

The property enjoys a south-facing orientation, offering beautiful views towards the sea and lovely
