Large detached villa with a pool and two separate entrances in La Chumbera

Located in a quiet residential area of La Chumbera, this charming detached villa sits on an 852 m² lot. It is a property with character and great potential for those seeking space, privacy, and a wide range of possibilities.

The home features 6 bedrooms and a highly versatile layout, as it has two separate entrances, making it easy to configure two separate living spaces within the same property. An ideal option both for families who wish to share a home while maintaining their independence, and for those seeking a property with potential for rental income.
