A single floor apartment within Finca Cortesin, its living area opening onto a large terrace with views over the golf course and the sea beyond.

Finca Cortesin occupies 215 hectares between Casares and the coast, a resort built around its own championship golf course, which has hosted the Solheim Cup and the World Match Play Championship, alongside a five star hotel, spa and beach club a short drive away on the seafront. It sits apart from the more built up stretches of the Costa del Sol, its scale and setting closer to a private estate than a typical gated development, drawing owners who want genuine space and resort facilities on their...(Ask for More Details!)
