Located on the absolute frontline of the sea in the charming area of El Palo, this is a truly unique property that rarely comes onto the market.

The combination of uninterrupted sea views and a valid tourist license makes this home an exceptional opportunity-perfect both as a family residence and as a high-performing short-term rental investment.

The property features a lovely covered terrace with a seating and dining area, ideal for enjoying the sea views all year round. Inside, you'll find a bright and spacious living room, a fully equipped and recently renovated kitchen, one bedroom, and a generously sized bathroom on the ground floor. A
