Cocooned in greenery and the quiet that only the Montgó mountain can provide, this villa has a warmth and character you can feel the moment you arrive. Bathed in natural light and surrounded by a lush garden with the mountain as its ever-present backdrop, it's the ideal setting to live the authentic Mediterranean lifestyle.

Set on a 1,700 m² plot, the home enjoys complete privacy behind thick cypress hedges, with a mature garden of ancient carob trees, fruit trees, and vibrant flowering plants. At its centre sits a green-tiled pool that melts into the landscape, creating a calm oasis where the pace of life naturally slows down.
