Nestled in the centre of the picturesque and traditionally Spanish village of Formentera del Segura, this impeccably presented townhouse blends contemporary living with authentic Mediterranean charm. Constructed in 2018, the property forms part of an intimate and exclusive development of just four homes, all still owned by the original residents. Now, for the very first time, one of these sought-after properties is coming to market - a truly rare opportunity.

The home offers three generously sized bedrooms and two elegant bathrooms, including a master en-suite. Two bedrooms are conveniently situated on the ground floor, providing ??????? and practicality for year-round living. The interior has been thoughtfully designed and furnished to
