We present for sale a cozy 80 m² country house on a large 1,300 m² plot, located in Tallante, a quiet area surrounded by nature in the municipality of Cartagena.

The home is divided into two areas and requires a complete renovation, representing an excellent opportunity for those who want to design their home from scratch, completely adapting it to their needs and lifestyle. Whether as a permanent residence or as a second home to escape the urban pace, this property offers the space, surroundings, and freedom to make it possible.

The plot, ideal for a garden or orchard, also has its own well and access to electricity and water (connection pending)...(Ask for More Details!)
